From the CRC,

We have come to the conclusion of another productive year, for 2019 we strive to continue working hard together to not only help support our business' but also ourselves and help promote our little historical town.

We had a bit of hot weather during over the Christmas break but that didn't stop us from enjoying Christmas and the new year with family, friends and other loved ones.

We ask for everyone to drive safe no matter what season of the year it is, over the Christmas holidays we had a number of accidents and unfortunately lives were lost, all lives matter all year round and a simple mistake can make a large impact to friends and families, to everyone that is travelling please drive safe and consider other peoples safety as well as your own.

Lets start this year off with good vibes and good memories! On behalf of the Editor and the staff from the CRC we wish you all a safe and happy 2019.

Australia Day Citizenship Awards – The Winner!

Late last year the Shire of Cue called for nominations for Citizenship Awards for Australia Day 2019. There was some competition for the top spot, however one person truly stood out amongst all others – congratulations to Helene Salame!

Throughout her years here in Cue she has quietly, behind the scenes, been putting in an amazing effort to support members of the community. As a volunteer ambulance officer, she has been completing training in her own time to become a Level 2 officer, and provides support and encouragement to other officers to assist their training.

Helene has also been teaching dancing classes after hours to everyone who is interested, and her students have improved self esteem and pride through learning to dance and sharing their new skills with the community.

Helene has also selflessly offered her time as a volunteer to other events outside of the school including the Cue Fun Day, where she helped on the committee and volunteered on the day.

All round, she has been an amazing member of our community and is well deserving of this award. Cue has lost a truly amazing person with Helene moving on to her next challenge, however we wish her all the best and believe that her new home will soon be benefiting from the selfless support of this years recipient of the Australia Day Citizenship Award.

Helene is travelling back to Cue specifically to receive her award - please join us at the Australia Day breakfast on the 26th January at the Town Hall at 9am to congratulate her on this wonderful acknowledgement of her efforts.

We would also like to congratulate the other nominees for their contributions to the community this year, and thank them for their tireless efforts in supporting Cue.

Christmas Lights Competition 2018

Well, Santa has been checking the lights around Cue again for the annual Christmas Lights Competition, and there were some fantastic displays this year. Sadly, there can only be one winner...drum roll please...

The Winner is - Sue Ward in Patterson St

Second Place - goes to Cue Nursing Post in Victoria St

Third Place – Kelli Young and Georgia Pollett tied with Brock Lucev in Burt Place

There were two encouragement awards this year – to Pauline in Burt Place and Fred in Marshall St. Well done you two.

I must say that Burt Place put on a good show this year with 3 entries - we'll have to get the other houses in the street to get into the Christmas spirit next year and see if we can't make it a street filled with Christmas Cheer!

The Winning Entry

Cue Nursing Post - 2nd place

Kelli & Georgia's Display - 3rd place

Brock's Display - 3rd Place

Australia Day Poem

Australians are a funny lot, you'll often hear one curse,
How things have started badly, and they'll probably get worse,
The weathers dry, the sun's so hot it's stolen all the water,
The Government has never done the things we think they oughta'.

But if we hear a tourist say his home is much more grand,
They had better be prepared to make a very solid stand.
For although we Aussies may complain at what's become our lot,
When someone knocks this country, we defend with all we've got.

We may criticize some teenage brat, may even wish them failure,
But we stand behind them cheering when they're playing for Australia.
Because, if this is home to you, the country of your birth,
Then you back the native player to beat anyone on Earth.

When the cricket bats are swinging or when someone scores a try,
When a home grown horse has won the cup and made the owner cry,
When some Paralympics athlete hits the front and sets the pace,
You'll hear "Aussie Aussie Aussie" as the crowd goes off their face.

And although we like to take a break in overseas locations,
If you take the time to question this nomadic population,
They will tell you without blinking that wherever they may roam,
The best part of the journey was the last bit,coming home.

For the sun was never brighter on the beach at Waikiki,
Than it is on all the sandy shores Australia has to see,
The water never purer nor the air as fresh and clear,
The people never friendlier than those that we have here.
If you venture to the outback where grass is scarce as snow,
As you swelter you may wonder what it was that made you go,

But just look at the locals who have lived there since their birth,
And I know you will not find a better class of folk on earth.

All across this wide brown country from the Cape to Hobart town,
There are people who will help you when you find the chips are down,
And if someone should abuse you, and does it just because,
Then that person's not Australian, and that person never was.

So when you feel disgruntled just remember this rendition,
And never blame the country for the acts of politicians,
Look up and count your blessings when you see our flag unfurled,
And be grateful that you live in the best country in the world.

A Funny Story About Calling God From Australia

Jay, an American, was commissioned to write a book about famous churches around the world. Firstly, Jay bought a plane ticket and took a trip to Columbus, Ohio, USA, thinking that he would start by working his way across the USA from East to West.

On his first day he was inside a church taking photographs when he noticed a golden telephone mounted on the wall with a sign that read "$10,000 per call".

Jay was intrigued so he asked a priest who was strolling by what the telephone was used for.

The priest replied that it was a direct line to heaven and that for $10,000 you could talk to God.

Jay thanked the priest and went along his way.

Next stop was in Des Moines, Iowa and there at a very large cathedral, he saw the same looking golden telephone with the same sign under it. Jay wondered if this was the same kind of telephone he had seen in Columbus and he asked a nearby nun what its purpose was.

She told him that it was a direct line to heaven and that for $10,000 he could talk to God.

Seriously polite, Jay thanked the nun for her help.

Jay then travelled all across America, Europe, England, Japan, New Zealand.

In every church he saw the same looking golden telephone with the same "$US10,000 per call" sign under it.

Jay decided to travel to the southern hemisphere to Australia to see if they had a similar phone. He arrived at Western Australia, and again, in the first church he entered, there was the same looking golden telephone, but this time the sign under it read "40 cents per call."

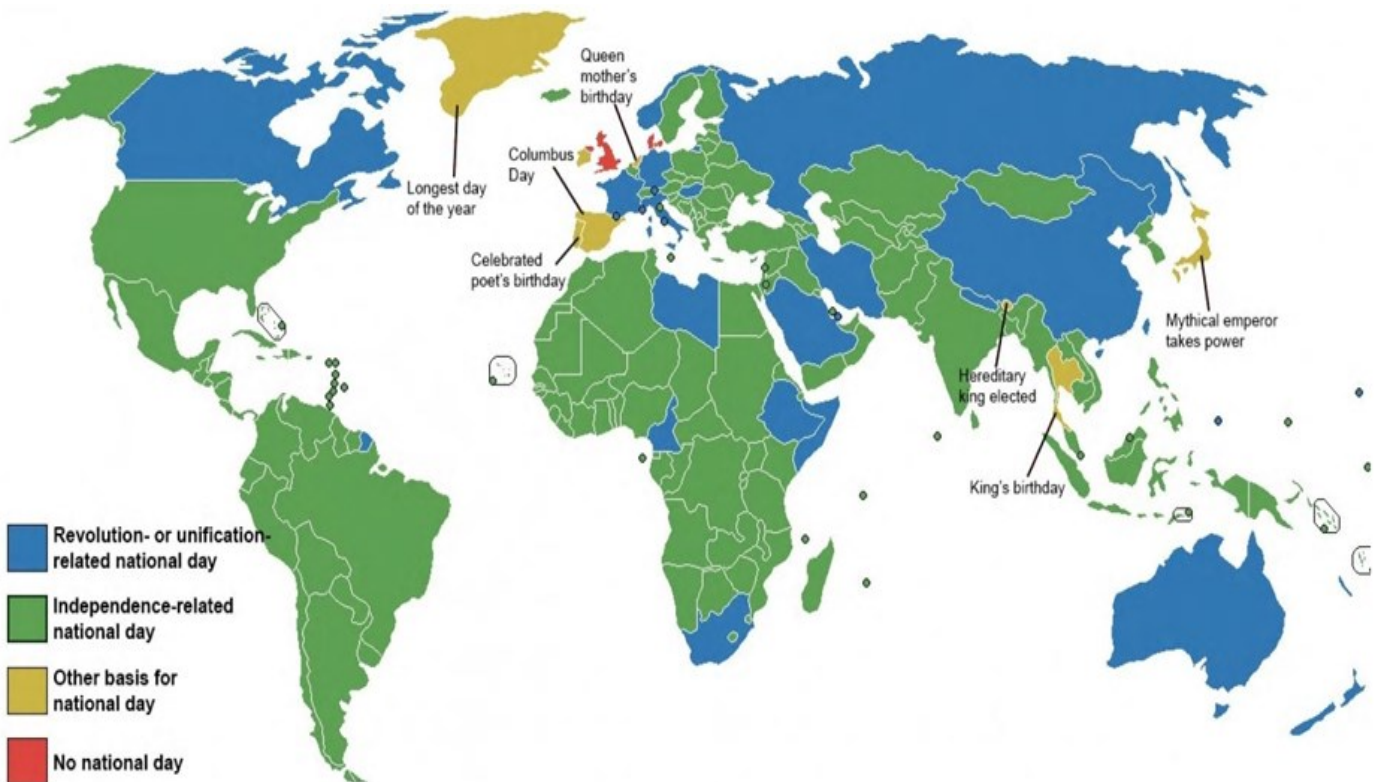

Somewhat surprised, Jay asked the priest about the sign. 'Father Brian, I've travelled all over the world and I've seen this same golden telephone in many churches. I'm told that it is a direct line to Heaven, but in all of them price was $10,000 per call. Why is it so cheap here?'

Father Brian smiled and answered, ' My son, you're in Australia now - this is Heaven, so it's only a local call.'

Australia Day

For some people Australia Day is a day of BBQ's, beer and relaxing; for others a day of reflection on who we are as nation. For some it is also a day of mourning. The story of Australia begins in much the same way it did for other countries who eventually fell under British rule, with a ship exploring for new lands, and a captain under orders to take control before a rival country did. The development of our identity as a country though, was slow to grow into what we know today, and the day we call 'Australia Day, Foundation Day, or Invasion Day' was a fairly recent change. We didn't actually start using the name 'Australia Day' as a nation until 1935, and didn't start celebrating it as a public holiday until 1994, so it's a fairly new invent. It was first recognised in Sydney as 'Foundation Day' or 'First Landing Day' in 1804, and in 1838 it was first proclaimed a public holiday. It wasn't until 1888, on the centenary, that the other states began to recognise the date and it became 'Foundation Day' across the country. By 1935 it became recognised as a national public holiday, however it was in 1938 that the aboriginal people had their first 'day of mourning' and started protesting for equal citizenship rights. By 1979 a new council was established to make 'Australia Day' a more prominent celebration on the calendar, and in 1984 we ceased to be British subjects. Then in 1994, celebrating Australia Day on the 26 January became officially established.

For Australia, our national day is tied to an inextricable event – the landing of Captain Arthur Phillip on Sydney Cove and raising the British Flag in 1788, signalling that he had taken possession on behalf of the British Empire. Much of the world can also point to colonisation or revolution as a key starting point in nationhood.

CHOOSE YOUR OWN ADVENTURE MUFFINS

AMBER

Preparation time: 10 mins

Cook time: 25 mins

Makes: 12 muffins

1/2 serve grains and cereals per muffin

Ingredients

- Oil spray
- 1 cup self-raising flour
- 1/2 cup wholemeal self-raising flour
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 200g low-fat natural yoghurt
- 2 tablespoons oil
- 1 egg
- Mix-ins. Choose from the list or create your own!

Method

1. Preheat oven to 200°C. Lightly grease a 12-hole muffin tray with oil spray.
2. Mix the flours and sugar together in a large bowl.
3. In a separate bowl, mix the yoghurt, oil, egg and mix-ins
4. Add this wet mixture to the flour and sugar mixture and stir until just combined. Be careful not to over-mix.
5. Spoon into muffin tray and bake for 20-25 minutes, until lightly golden and a skewer inserted into the middle comes out clean.

Note: This mixture will make 24 mini muffins. Smaller muffins will cook quicker so check them after 15 minutes.

Storage: Individually wrap in cling wrap and freeze for up to 3 months and place in lunchboxes still frozen. They will be defrosted by recess time.

Suggested mix-ins

Banana-rama

- 2 bananas, mashed
- 1/4 cup rolled oats

Halloween

- 3/4 cup pumpkin, grated
- 1 tablespoon allspice

Berry-licious

- 1 cup fresh or frozen mixed berries

Coco Jambo

- 1 small can crushed pineapple, well drained
- 2-3 tablespoons desiccated coconut

Apple-y ever after Tutti-fruity

- 1 apple, grated with skin on
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon vanilla essence
- 3 tablespoons of chopped dried fruit
- Try apple, apricot, cranberries, sultanas, papaya, mango, fig, date, or pineapple

Fun for the family recipes

Loaded Potato

Prick potato (leave the skin on) all over with a fork and wrap in aluminium foil. Bake in the oven for 45 minutes at 220°C.

OR Prick potato (leave the skin on) all over with a fork. Put in a microwave safe container and cook for 5 minutes on HIGH (100%). Flip over and microwave for another 5 minutes. If still hard in the middle, microwave for a minute at a time, till soft.

Cut a cross across the cooked potato and top with Mexican Mince. Finish with a little reduced-fat cheese, natural low-fat yoghurt, spring onions and chilli flakes.

Mexican Toastie

Spoon the Mexican Mince onto a slice of wholemeal or multigrain bread and top with a little grated reduced-fat cheese and another slice of bread. Cook in a sandwich press or the oven until the cheese is melted and bread is crunchy.

Nachos

Use scissors to cut up a tortilla or flat bread into triangle shapes. Cook in the oven (10 minutes at 180°C) or in a sandwich press until golden and crunchy. Top these crispy triangles with a spoonful of Mexican Mince, a sprinkle of reduced-fat cheese and a spoonful of low-fat natural yoghurt. Add spring onions and chilli flakes for extra spice.
